Starring Susie Wall

BABYLICIOUS When Hugh Jackman (or at least his nanny) calls, you listen. In B.C. shooting X:3, the star and his clan have gone gaga for Vancouver's new Babylicious clothing and accessories collection. It appeared Team Jackman (led by two pint-sized Aussies) was hungry for more of the line's fresh and fashion-minded colour pairings (think über-stylish dots, stripes and spa-like white waffle) in styles such as the Get Messy Bib, Yummy Blanket, Hooded Bath Towel and Foot Huggers. The best news? Babylicious has launched an oh-so-jet-set Travelers Collection. Should come in handy for brand new, card-carrying clients like the Affleck-Garners and the Spears-Federlines. NANA'S GARDEN Indulge your glamour tots in Bev Hills-style arts and crafts, games and kiddie chow (crustless peanut butter and jelly on whole grain, anyone?) while you mani, massage and airbrush tan—all under the same roof. That's the agenda at Nana's Garden in Los Angeles, where adult day spa meets daycare in a fairy-tale setting plucked from a Hollywood film set. Opened by Tricia Fisher and her famous mother-sister team Connie and Joely, Nana's Garden is aimed at worn-out moms craving me-time and (most importantly) an on-site sitter. And yes, the treatment rooms are sound-proof. www.nanasgarden.net.

BÉBÉ AU LAIT When a nursing cover comes in patterns named Kimono, Pink Swirls and Chocolat, you know that mom-shells from Malibu to New Mexico will take notice. Founded by California-based pro "soccer wives" Aimee Lagos and Claire Ekelund, Bébé Au Lait's "nursing covers for chic mothers" (or Hooter Hiders — for you extra-sexy mamas) allow stars like Gwyneth Paltrow, Liv Tyler, Courteney Cox and Julia Roberts to nurse Apple, Milo, Coco and the twin engines Phinnaeus and Hazel in style. Just slip the adjustable straps around the back of your neck, et voilà! A sassy capelet for your tot. Available at Bloom Essentials in Vancouver and Gloss Beauty Bar in Victoria. DIRTY LAUNDRY Vancouver's Dirty Laundry has launched a kids' collection that will have mini-fashion munchkins drooling for seconds. With an adult client list that includes Alicia Keys, Britney Spears and Halle Berry (who commissioned 400 tees for Catwoman cast and crew), word has spread about the appliquéd tees and hoodies for tykes aged six months to six years. Hey Junior! How about a doggie wearing gold lamé headphones that reads "Boogie Woogie"? Or a pink dinosaur growling "Rowr" surrounded by space invaders? Now you know how to spell h-i-p. Alicia Keys wears Dirty Laundry.

Nana's Garden is a daycare and a spa.
